

TABLE OF REGIONAL RECREATION LAYERS

DESCRIPTION OF LAYER	BENEFITS	POTENTIAL CO-BENEFITS	CRITERIA MET	SOURCE OF LAYER
Regional Recreation
1. Areas with an Open Space (Region Serving Park) zoning designation. Areas designated as a region serving park on the City's zoning maps	Recreation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Wildlife Habitat</li> <li>• Water Supply and Water Quality</li> </ul>	Recreation: Region Serving Park (local zoning designation)	City of Oakland
2. Proposed and Existing Class 1 Bikeways. Bikeways that provide a separated right of way for the exclusive use of bicycles and pedestrians with minimal crossflow by motorists	Recreation		Recreation: Consists of Proposed Regional Trails	City of Oakland
3. EBRP Trails. Hiking trails within an East Bay Regional Park	Recreation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Wildlife Habitat</li> </ul>	Recreation: Consists of Proposed Regional Trails	East Bay Regional Parks District
4. San Francisco Bay Trail. Portion of the 340 mile shoreline walking and bicycling path that passes through City of Oakland	Recreation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Wildlife Habitat</li> <li>• Water Supply and Water Quality</li> <li>• Climate and Resilience</li> </ul>	Recreation: Consists of Bay Trail	ABAG
5. Hill-to-Bay Trail. Areas proposed to be restored hills to bay creek/pedestrian corridors.	Recreation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Wildlife Habitat</li> <li>• Water Supply and Water Quality</li> <li>• Climate and Resilience</li> <li>• Community Health</li> </ul>	Recreation: Consists of Proposed Regional Trail	City of Oakland
6. Multi-Use Regional Trail. Trails for multiple purposes—pedestrian, running, biking.	Recreation		Recreation: Consists of Proposed Regional Trail	City of Oakland