

Cannabis and the City: What Does the Future Hold for the Industry?

Ruthann G. Ziegler, Principal
Meyers Nave

October 13, 2017

History

- Prop 215
- SB 420
- Prop 64
- SB 94
- On the horizon

Permissible Actions by Cities

- Complete ban
 - Commercial activity
 - Outdoor cultivation
 - Delivery
- Regulate any of the above

Permissible Regulations by Cities

- Location of smoking
- Indoor cultivation at residence for personal use

Threat of Federal Action

- Medical vs. recreational
- Ethical considerations
- Privacy and Public Records Act

State Licensing and Regulation Bureau of Cannabis Control

- January 1, 2018
- Temporary licenses
- Draft regulations – November 2017
- Types of licenses

Considerations for Local Regulation

- Ban or regulate
- Medical or recreational
- Type of activity
- Location
- Selecting operators
- Zoning code, business license, use permit
- CEQA
 - Union of Medical Marijuana Patients v. City of San Diego

Do This Now!

- Business & Professions Code § 26055
 - Submit ordinance to Bureau of Cannabis Control
 - Designate point person

Questions

Presenters

Ruthann G. Ziegler

Principal, Meyers Nave

rziegler@meyersnave.com

916.556.1531